

Students selecting this subject will be equipped to better participate effectively in a society that is characterised by rapid social, economic, technological, legal, political and environmental change.

This course is very popular because it is so relevant to life and living today. It is an ideal course if you wish to pursue a career in teaching, psychology, counselling, nursing etc.

What will I be doing in this course?

Preliminary Modules:

- Resource Management.
- Individuals and Groups
- Families and Communities

HSC Modules:

- Research Methodology
- Groups in Context
- Parenting and Caring

Option modules:

- Family and Societal Interactions
- Social Impact of Technology
- Individuals and Work

What should I be able to do at the end of this course?
Community and Family Studies aims to develop in each student an ability to manage resources and take action to support the needs of individuals, groups and families in Australian society.

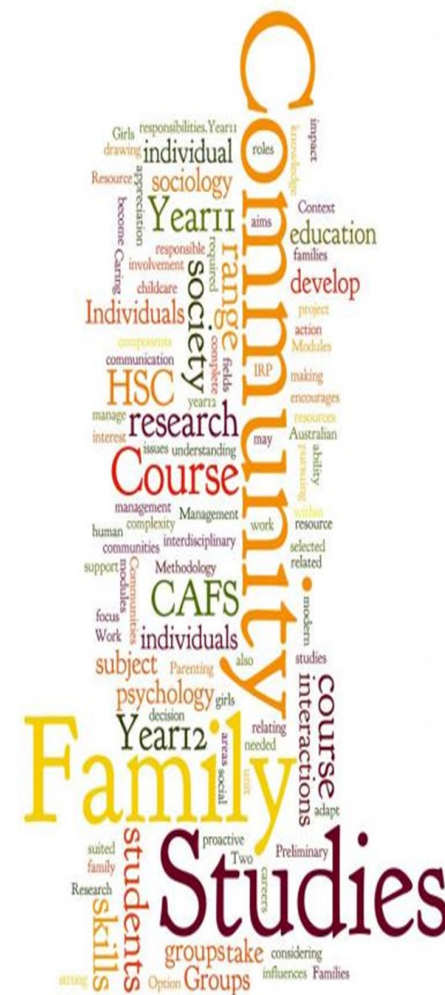

Special Assessment requirement for this subject.

Students will carry out research in the form of an Independent Research Project which is internally examined and forms 25% of the HSC assessment mark.

How will this course help me in the future?

The course would have vocational applications in career paths such as Business Management, Human Resource Management, Teaching, Social Work, Child Care worker, Nursing, Counselling and Marketing.

This subject is suited to those students in Year 11 and 12 who have an interest in a range of issues relating to the interactions of individual and groups in society. Students who take this course may be considering pursuing further education in the areas of sociology, psychology, resource management, education, and childcare or careers in social work or research related fields

Stage 6-
Community and Family Studies

Goobarabah Avenue, Lake Haven
Postal Address: PO Box 4338
Lake Haven NSW 2263

Phone: 4393 7000
Fax: 4393 1157
E-mail: gorokan-h.school@det.nsw.edu.au